DEADLINE - MONDAY, APRIL 12 1982

COST: PRICELESS

Cowboys win Shootout at Quadra

On Friday 19 Mar. the Courtenay R.C.M.P. and the Security Section of C.F.B. Comox competed in the first annual R.C.M.P./C.A.F. Security Section Invitational Combat Shoot, which was held at the Range at H.M.C.S. Quadra. This competition was initiated to foster the interest of Security personnel, especially junior members, in competitive shooting and to improve proficiency. The competition also allows the R.C.M. Police to become familiar with and fire the 9 mm pistol.

The course of fire consisted of 36 rounds with the R.C.M.P. .38 cal. revolver and 36 rounds with the military 9 mm pistol, with a possible perfect score of 360. Approximately 40 competitors took part in the one day event.

After all the smoke had cleared away, and all the scores tallied, the Courtenay R.C.M.P. were declared the winners.

The total first place team results from the R.C.M.P. were:

Cst. Pete Thompson
360/360
Cst. Greg Heck 357/360
Cst. Lorne Zimmerman
341/360
Cst. Bob Lee 359/360

The team total score was 1417 points.

The R.C.M.P. team beat out the Security Section team of:

M Cpl. Sandy Sutherland
344/360
Capt. Norm Rodrigue
355/360
Cpl. Harry Cleveland
353/360
S*Sgt. Dennis Doyle
344/360

Their team score was 1396 points. A close race with only 21 points separating the two teams.

After the competition was completed, all participants retired to the Security Sections Lounge at C.F.B. Comox where the trophy presentations took place, followed by a well deserved "debriefing".

The team trophy was presented to the R.C.M.P. by Base Operations Officer, LCol. Burrows.

Superintendent Cootes, Officer Commanding, Courtenay Sub-Division, R.C.M.P. presented the first place trophy to Sgt. Murray McConnell, C.A.F. Security Section in the Masters Class, who had the highest individual score of the day of 360/360 with 15x, beating out Cst. Pete Thompson whose score was 360/360 with 11x. Superintendent Cootes also presented the first place trophy in the Expert Class to Cst. Daryl Wilkison of the Courtenay R.C.M.P.

The acting Base Security Officer, Capt. Rodrigue, presented two trophies. One to MCpl. Sandy Sutherland, Security Section for first in the Sharpshooters Class and the first place trophy for the Marksman Class to Cpl. Steve Burnett.

An invited dignitary, Maj. Carlson of the U.S.A.F. presented the first place trophy in the Tyro Class to Cpl. Ken Longchamps, Security Section.

From all indications it would appear that the shoot, which is planned as an annual event, was a complete success. Plans are being made for a bigger and better shoot for next year.

NIGHTHAWKS

NEST

Readers whose eyeballs automatically scan the credit line prior to reading the article will notice that the Nighthawk's Nest resident wit and good humour man did not pen this article. Reading this article will be proof that this writer is not about to attempt filling the shoes of the aforementioned reporter. It goes without saying that filling those shoes would be as futile as digging a hole in quicksand with a pitchfork or like strolling across a south Alberta cowpasture wearing snowshoes on a hot summer day. Take your pick.

Readers picking up on the Nighthawks Nest for the first time will undoubtedly question the judgement of this paper's editor for publishing drivel like this. However, it is this reporters humble estimation that if 442 can canvass for the FLATH FAN CLUB under the guise of responsible reporting, 409 can canvass for the "IT'S HARD TO BE HUMBLE" ADMIRATION SOCIETY. 442's literary prowess is exceeded only by their average mach number and their cumulative score on the PACMAN at the mess.

Across the hall, 407 squadron is deserving of our thanks for the support they gave to the Callshot 50/50 draw. The 407 contribution of 160 ticket sales was roughly 40 times that of the CE section. I would personally like to extend my condolences to 407 squadron at losing Sgt. Bob Henn. He had to be known to be appreciated.

In B.G.J.K.'s last contribution to THE TIMES, he alluded to feeling trepidation at venturing to the foreign base of Bagotville - for lack of a better description. That is not true. BGJK is secretly and ardently pleased at such a venture, you see - he asked for it. As you may or may not be aware of, Barry has been known on occasion, to dress up like a depraved Easter rabbit or PLAYBOY logo, or a General Patton, or worse still - a fighter pilot. But what really did him in was his discourse on the relationship between fairplay and losing in his welcome speech to the Callshot teams and judges. Not only does Bagotville permit him to dress as he pleases, it will also teach him to airfight without getting caught at cheating, and how to do it better, i.e. - cheat. Then he will be ultimately qualified to join the corps of fighter instructors, and teach other people how to cheat. Now if we could only get Desro on that course...

Speaking of Desro, the CFB Comox fibrillation squad on duty in the big glass house got a taste of intense action last week as Desro rocketed down the runway amidst firetrucks and ambulances. After successfully entangling his silver twin in the wire at the far end of the asphalt to the chagrin of our firefighter, Gerry, with aplomb known only to Gerry, calmly announced, "It must be Miller time", or words to that effect. K.D., head of the fibrillation team, let that one slip. Alas Gerry - these things happen.

It was also observed that during the mid-Friday morning ops desk blues, the propensity of "A" Flighters for acquiring nicknames. It was pointed out that there was a DRAGCHETTE Foulds, THUMPER (I don't know why), TAILHOOK DESRO, SLACK ROBERT, and a few other unprintables. It should be pointed out that this observation was made by "B" Flighter SMOKEY Oreziak. SMOKEY acquired that moniker during Maple Flag last year. He left his mark on the Cold Lake range by starting a forest fire.

We're still trying to figure out a suitable handle for our illustrious SOPSO. Word has it that he can squeeze an extra three thousand pounds of gas out of a 101 by using both hands on the stick. Our most recent ICP probably wishes he had the same talent.

Finally, for the good news. By the time this is published, the Nighthawks will have flown the coop for the lower latitudes of Tucson, Arizona. This is a seasonal migration of short duration designed primarily to allow the other squadrons on base to feel important.

The Squadron has a few new members. I'll discuss them after I figure out how to spell their names. The way things are going, we'll soon be wearing colorful costumes and having perogy parties. Speaking of parties, April 24 is the night of the VOO Doo at the Officers Mess. You can wear colorful duds to that one. My crayon has finally worn down to the fingers so I'll wrap this up. Next issue should hold some tales of the Tucson deployment, if Supply with issue me another crayon, or better yet, allow me something sharper to write with. Ahhhh - it's hard to be humble.

THUMPER

Demon Doins

THE XO strikes a hard deal with the Aussies. Does that mean we'll soon be bouncing Bravos off the runway... Pictured above from left to right: RAN Sub Lt. Mark Jerrett, 407 Sqn. Lt. Richard Burton, 407 XO Maj. Dick Kuntz, RAN Sub Lt's Keith Butcher and Simon Millett.

VP-50 and VP-9 P-3Cs from Moffett Field share the flight line during WORKUPS 1-82.

Supply

Last issue we told you all about the new big top. Well since then we have discovered that the silly creature was with young. Yes Folks, the Big White has surprised us by bringing into the world 5 little green tents. We are pleased to announce that all are doing well in the nursery set up beside General Stores. We're still trying to figure out who the Father is and we're thinking of making a sandbox to really get everyone in the mood.

Speaking of little tents, Cpl. Neil McLeod will be on his way to Tent City, Calgary soon and even seems pleased with this. (Heh, Neil, since the Big White did come from Calgary, maybe you could find out if the mysterious Green Father is there and pass on the happy news!).

There has been a lot happening on the Supply Sports scene. The hockey team took 1st place, with the help of a ringer I'm told. The great Wayne Gretzky Davis did his thing in helping the team bring home the trophy. Should be most interesting to find out what the rest of the team's names are. Good work and Congratulations. At the curling logspiele in Esquimalt earlier this month, Supply was represented by 5 teams. A good time was had by all, NO serious long term injuries were incurred and all the teams even finished, where they actually placed will not be mentioned in order to protect the innocent. With Baseball season right around the corner, all you would be Mickey Mantals should start warming up.

In closing this week I'd like to leave you with a few words of wisdom from a friendly little town called ANONYMOUS. These juicy tidbits have been passed down from generation to generation helping them through tough times. For single girls "MEN ARE LIKE TROLLEY CARS, IF YOU MISS ONE YOU'LL CATCH ANOTHER." and for the married ladies, "IF YOU WANT TO BE A GOOD WIFE ALWAYS SAY YES TO EVERYTHING YOUR HUSBAND SAYS...BUT YOU DON'T ALWAYS HAVE TO BE A GOOD WIFE."; and for all those hard working types, "ALWAYS DO YOUR BEST - THAT'S ALL A MULE CAN DO." Next issue will be Bob's. Wish him luck.

Ooops!

Howdy. You may have noticed that this paper is somewhat smaller than the normal fishwrapper (as if the fishwrapper can ever be considered normal!) We had - as they say in the business - severe technical problems. Our one-machine-does-it-all didn't; we were stuck between a rock and hard place, and if it wasn't for the good folks at the "Green Sheet" you'd be staring at blank newsprint.

It's really too bad that we had the breakdown - this had promised to be quite likely the best edition in the history of the printed word. Instead you're stuck with - but never mind. The point is, all the goodies that should have been here now will be in the next issue, April 15.

- We'll say goodbye to Willie Haras, cartoonist extra-ordinaire:
 - Discuss the 'Big Top';
 - Get the insider's poop on the really big VIP's;

- Hear first hand the reason why 409 will be deported from Tucson, Arizona;
 - Learn why 407 Naves are cleaning up at Centipede and PACMAN: and much, much more.

They plan on making an example out of your hapless editor: I'll be tied to a chair with my eyelids taped open and be forced to watch the re-runs of last years Constitutional Bill highlights for 72 hours. Everytime I yawn they stuff a dirty gym sock in my mouth and blow cigarette smoke in my face.

The long and the short of it is - oops! (It's not really anybody's fault, but some poeple like to hear other people apologize.) I can't guarantee that it won't happen again, but with any kind of luck this type of disaster can't happen to anyone twice in one lifetime.

See you in two weeks!

Elections

Elections and selections were featured at the March meeting of the Officers' Wives' Club. Under the direction of Vice-President Fran Al-Molky the following ladies were elected to the 1982-83 O.W.C. executive: Vera Arajas - Vice-President; Marcia Blom - Secretary; Julie James - Treasurer; Betty Ricketts, Debbie Foulds - Entertainment; Kathleen Birt - Food; Irene Hughes - Publicity; Janet McBean - Welcoming; Lynda Merkel - Phone; Linda Orr - Bridge. Thank you to all who let their names stand and congratulations to those elected.

Following the elections the Arts and Crafts sale began. The quality and variety of crafts displayed was truly impressive. To all who displayed or purchased crafts, thank you for making the evening so enjoyable and successful. Gail Brown and Lynore Harrington were the lucky raffle and door prize winners.

Our next meeting is the O.W.C. Spring Fashion Show, April 21 at 8:00 p.m. featuring All Seasons Boutique and Comox Shoes. Seating is very limited so please purchase your tickets soon from Jan Sparks, Bev Burrows, or Bev Worbets. They are $5.

Tickets for the May closing dinner will be on sale at the fashion show. If you are a member of the O.W.C. and will be leaving CFB Comox this spring or summer please inform Linda Lott before the May dinner.
